NATIONAL YOUTH LEADERSHIP TRAINING - 2017

Baiting Hollow Scout Camp
Calverton NY

2017 Spring Course Schedule

April 7-9 & April 28-30

National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) is an exciting, action-packed program designed to provide youth members with leadership skills and experiences they can use in their home troops, teams, crews, personal lives, and in other situations demanding leadership of self and others.

NYLT is a two weekend outdoor experience for current and future troop and crew leaders, utilizing the patrol method. It presents leadership skills in multiple formats providing the opportunity for participants to live and practice these leadership skills. Virtually all of the training is conducted by the youth staff. The course follows the National BSA National Youth Leadership Training Curriculum.

What to Expect at NYLT

NYLT is an intensive six day course. Leadership theory is delivered in a patrol setting with an emphasis on immediate application of learning in a fun environment. The course is an exciting combination of classroom and fun outdoor activities providing a challenging and rewarding learning experience.

Who can attend?

Any Boy Scout who is at least 13 years old and has achieved the rank of First Class. Boy Scouts should have attended Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops.

Any Venturer (NYLT is coed) who has completed Introduction to Leadership Skills for Crews.

Why should you attend?

- You will meet scouts from all across Suffolk County Council.
- You will push all of your personal limits and discover what kind of leader you can be.
- You will learn and develop new leadership skills.
- You will have committed to becoming the best leader you can be.
- The skills you will learn are used in School, in Teams and throughout your lifetime.

Why should Unit Leaders send Youth?

- We provide intensive leadership training based on the foundations of Scouting.
- Trained leaders make scouting fun for the rest of your troop/crew members.
- You'll take pride watching your Youth Leaders run the troop/crew.

How is the course setup?

The patrol method is used extensively throughout the training. Patrols are established. A Troop Guide is assigned to each patrol to advise and be a resource to the participants throughout the learning process. The Course (Troop/Crew) setting provides an opportunity for youth to practice the newly learned skills providing the home unit with improved effectiveness and enthusiasm from the youth leaders.

Key Elements of the NYLT Course:

- A month in the life of a Troop
- Four Stages of Team Development Forming, Storming, Norming and Performing. Participants learn the appropriate leadership style for each of the stages.
- Leadership Requires Vision, Goals, Plans Participants learn the theme of Finding Your Vision/Creating a Future; they learn that "if you can see it, you can be it."

Toolbox of Leadership Skills

Participants learn to use the following skills:

- Vision-Goals-Planning: Creating Future Success
- SMART Goals-Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, Timely
- Planning and Problem Solving Tool – What, How, When, Who
- Assessment Tool-SSC-Start, Stop, Continue
- Teaching EDGE - Explain, Demonstrate, Guide, Enable
- Leading EDGE – Matching the Leader's Behavior to the Team's Stage
- Valuing People – ROPE – Reach out, Organize, Practice, Experience
- Conflict Resolution Tool – EAR – Express, Address, Resolve
- Making Ethical Decisions
- Communication Skills

Each Scout returns to their Unit with a toolbox of leadership skills that enables them to better understand their role as someone who can shape the directions of their unit.
