Matinecock District would like to extend our congratulations to Daniel and Liz Jumper, on the birth of their daughter

Alexandra Joy Jumper

7lbs 14oz, on 11/23/16

Liz is expected back to work after January 9th, until then if you require assistance please contact the front desk at the Council Service Center at 631-924-7000 or email Lauren Vlachos at lauren.vlachos@scouting.org or Bobby Rabbitt at robert.rabbitt@scouting.org.

As the calendar is winding down it seems a good time to look back and reflect on the year we've collectively had in Matinecock. For the first time in many years we not only made our membership goal but also will reach 2% growth by year end. This is a testament to the constant work of the membership committee and all the units that are out there recruiting new youth year-round. We welcomed 60 boys to the rank of Eagle Scout. Friends of Scouting in Matinecock, once again, paced council with over $60,000 raised collectively and popcorn once again saw an increase in sales. Webelos Woods brought over 1,000 scouts to Cathedral Pines and we had a solid contingent present at the council camporee in April. As we say goodbye to 2016 we can look back on all the great things we did as a district and, more importantly, what we did in our units to help our youth become better people.

2017 Silver Beaver Nomination & Honor Scout Award

It's time to recognize exceptional contribution by Suffolk County Council's volunteers & scouts. The ability to recognize these individuals completely depends on you. The Silver Beaver is the highest award that a council can present in recognition of a scout's exceptional service to Scouting and the community. Contact Paul Schmich (matfox@optonline.net) who is the Matinecock Silver Beaver coordinator with questions or for assistance.

The Honor Scout Award is in its second year and was developed to recognize a scout's exceptional service to Scouting and to the community. Contact Mimi Puttre' (mputtre@hotmail.com) who is our district's representative to the Fellowship Dinner committee.

Take the time to nominate those who have exceptionally given of their time and effort. Nomination forms are available on the council and district websites (www.sccbsa.org or www.matdistrict.org), and are due by 12/31. These awards and other recognition will be presented at the SCC Fellowship Dinner on March 23, 2017 at the Stonebridge Country Club in Smithtown (off 347 - Hauppauge).

86 Years of Wolves and Tigers and Bears! Oh, My!

Lion Program Overview

Lion is a national program of the Boy Scouts of America for kindergarten-age boys. The Lion pilot is exploring the value of a Scouting program for kindergarten-age boys. (Boys must be 5 years old by September 30 and not yet 7 years.)

Lion is a family-oriented program. A youth and his parent or caring adult partner join Scouting together. A group of six to eight boys and their adult partners meet together in a group called a den. Dens will meet approximately twice per month.

The Lion program encourages boys to learn and explore through hands-on, high-energy activities. Adult partners take turns leading a den meeting or outing during the year. Most meetings last approximately 45 minutes to an hour; outings are slightly longer.

Den meetings and outings are facilitated by a Lion guide and participating parents. The Lion guide is an experienced Cub Scout leader. He or she will lead the first den meeting of the year. The Lion guide will help each adult partner lead one of the remaining meetings. The den meeting plans are provided in the Lion Parent and Leader Guidebook.

Adult Partner

The adult partner participates with the Lion in fun meetings and outings. He or she takes turns with other adult partners in leading a den meeting and/or outing.

Lion Guide

A Lion guide is a volunteer leader who provides direct support to your Lion den

TASK FORCE NOTES ON CUB SCOUT ADVANCEMENT MODIFICATIONS

With one year of experience, feedback suggests that the new design of the Cub Scout program did successfully address many original concerns, but also indicates an opportunity for further modifications. Cub advancement was down after the first year of implementation and we know that correlates to lower member satisfaction and subsequently, lower retention. Some Den Leaders are having difficulty fitting all the Adventures required for advancement into their program year given their number of Den meetings and weather/daylight issues for outdoor activities. Overnight camping is a significant hurdle for some. Duty to God requirements connote organized religion to some and are not seen as embracing a belief in God and spirituality outside of specific faiths. A task force was formed to draft modifications to the Cub Scout

Program that would address this feedback. These modifications are designed to ensure that Adventure requirements are achievable by today's Cub Scout dens within a program year and achievable by Cub Scouts from a wide range of backgrounds and socio-cultural experiences. In order to maintain the integrity of the engaging, mission-driven, and user-friendly new Cub Scouting program, every effort was made to change as little as possible. All adjustments are intended to strengthen and support the new program as well as to assist the youth, families, and volunteers engaged in Cub Scouting. Flexibility is key. Most modifications involve the number of requirements to be completed, reducing the mandate to a number achievable within the limited time available to many dens, while retaining rich program options that allow leaders to build strong programs adapted to local needs and situations. Some rewording fosters participation by boys who could not otherwise complete an Adventure. Guidance and input was from a wide variety of stakeholder groups and individuals. Contributors and reviewers included representatives from faith-based organizations and cultural groups as well as BSA volunteers with specific program expertise, recent grassroots experience, and current engagement in regional and national BSA leadership. We greatly appreciate the thoughtful suggestions, support, and engagement of all those consulted. Modifications should be implemented quickly to prevent another year of advancement challenges. Prompt electronic publishing (foregoing professional copyediting in an effort to get the material into leader's hands as quickly as possible) of all 2016-2017 requirements was determined as the best path forward, resulting in little disruption to the program. The transition will be seamless, with leaders choosing to use revised requirements as the den begins any new Adventure. The modified requirements can be used with the current handbooks, with relevant changes to handbook content taking place in subsequent editions. The entire listing of all modifications for each rank can also be found at www.scouting.org/programupdates.

Where Eagles Dare

Often a question comes up about having a one-on-one conversation with a scout whether is in the context of a scoutmaster conference, merit badge counseling or just sitting down talking to a scout about his eagle project. So to clarify some points let's check with the experts:

Question: Must another registered adult or Scout observe the one-on-one conversation with the Scout and leader, even in a restaurant or coffee shop?

Answer: The BSA's Barriers to Abuse state: "In situations requiring a personal conference, such as a Scoutmaster conference, the meeting is to be conducted with the knowledge and in view of other adults and/or youth." The policy does not state another registered adult or Scout must be present. Conducting such a meeting with other adults/Scouts — registered or not — fulfills the policy requirement.

Question: Would performing a conference in a crowded restaurant dining area meet the standard for "no one-on-one" conversations?

Answer: As stated in the quoted policy above, a restaurant/coffee shop setting with other parents, Scouters or Scouts present is permissible.

Question: Is there a prohibition keeping a Scout from having such a conversation over video conferencing, such as Skype?

Answer: The same rules outlined above apply. The presence of adults (parents), Scouters and/or Scouts within visual range would make a Skype conference permissible.

What about on-line conversations?

“No one-on-one contact between adults and youth members includes digital communication. Leaders may not have one-on-one private online communications or engage one-on-one in other digital activities (games, social media, etc.) with youth members. Leaders should copy a parent and another leader in digital and online communication, ensuring no one-on-one contact exists in text, social media, or other forms of online or digital communication.”

Commissioner's Corner

Unit Service and Roundtable

Good evening Matinecock District,

First, I would like to thank all of those who attended our District Re-Chartering event back on November 12th. The staff who attended were able to assist those who had questions with the charter. We will also be able to take the feedback we learned from the inaugural event and make changes for next year's event to better serve you.

Next, the December deadline for completing this year's charter renewals is fast approaching, so please work with your unit commissioner's to make sure they are completed on time. The quicker the charters are completed and turned into council, the better the council will be able to efficiently and accurately input any charter changes. To find out who your Unit Commissioner is, please go to the Commissioner's Corner section on our MatDistrict.org webpage.

Finally, I hope everyone has a safe and relaxing holiday season. Everyone in the district has worked hard to provide a stellar program for all of Scouts. I hope this holiday break gives you all some much needed rest with your families, and have you all prepared for more exciting events coming in 2017!

Have a Happy Holidays and Happy New Year everyone!

Yours in Scouting,

George J. S. Smith. Matinecock District Commissioner
