Concord River

Come join us for early spring whitewater rafting on the Concord River, just 30 minutes north of Boston. This urban whitewater gem plunges over three major class III-IV rapids - Twisted Sister, Three Beauties, and Middlesex Dam. When the water level is right, Three Beauties becomes an intensely fun surfing hole. Surfing involves paddling upstream into a wave or hole with the goal to fill the boat with water, splash the entire crew, or maybe even have the boat stand on end. We run this section twice on each Concord River rafting trip. We welcome adventurous rafters 14 and older.

Trip Length: half day Minimum Age: 14
Season: April and May Intensity Level: advanced

Millers River

Join Zoar Outdoor on one of New England's most popular rafting trips! When the spring thaw turns New England rivers into a torrent the Millers River in western Massachusetts comes into its own. With big-water Class III and IV rapids that peak at the Funnel, the large diagonal waves and holes require total concentration and all-out paddling from all aboard the rafts. Rafting on The Millers River is ideal for those seeking the thrill of high-volume rafting for all rafters ages 12 and up.

Trip Length: full day Minimum Age: 12
Season: April Intensity Level: intermediate

Zoar Gap

Take your family, office, church, or scout group rafting on the Deerfield River's most popular rafting section, Zoar Gap. With a minimum age of 7, these Class II whitewater rapids with one Class III rapid are ideal for beginner rafters.

Trip Length: full day Minimum Age: 7
Season: April to October Intensity Level: moderate

Whitewater Kayak Lessons

Whitewater kayaking or canoeing is a great way to enjoy the outdoors while choosing your level of adventure. Zoar Outdoor offers white water kayaking and canoeing lessons on the Deerfield River in the Berkshire hills of Massachusetts to suit every level of paddler, from kayaking for beginners to advanced.

Trip Length: 1 to 5 days Minimum Age: 10
Season: April to October Intensity Level: beginner to advanced.

New York

A three-day canoe trip in the lower 48, you'd be hard-pressed to find anything better than the 42-mile segment from the town of Long Lake, New York, to the village of Saranac Lake in the Adirondacks. This chunk, on the route of the annual Adirondack Canoe Classic, is accessible and user-friendly, with two portages and a set of locks as it traces Long Lake, the Raquette River, and the three Saranac Lakes. And the sense of wilderness is profound: once you put in, there's just the densely forested beauty of the 'Dacks, with the High Peaks rising to the east. Lean-tos are scattered along the route. Get maps from northernforestcanoetrail.org, and rent your boat—and arrange a shuttle back to Long Lake—from Lake Clear-based Mac's Canoe Livery (rentals from $35 per day; shuttle, from $125).

New York City Water Trail

<http://www.nycgovparks.org/facilities/kayak>

New York City is rich in water. If you're looking for a few hours of tranquil paddling or a full-day expedition, you'll find it here. The New York City Water Trail connects 160 square miles of rivers, bays, creeks, inlets and ocean in the five boroughs suitable for kayaks, canoes, and openwater rowing craft. Novice and experienced paddlers alike can enjoy skyline panoramas, riverside parks, bird sanctuaries, tidal marshlands, and boundless vistas of one of the world's premier harbors, all from a prime sea-level vantage.

Shawn Habecker

Our Boy Scout Troop was a Backpacking and hiking group up until a few years ago when we started to look into mixing it up. We wanted a canoe trip in the Adirondacks and I called Raquette River outfitters to get more information. With Anne's help and patience we set up a trip for the ages. We have done the same trip several times now and it has become a highly requested trip from not only our scouts, but our adults as well. I highly recommend Raquette River Outfitters for all of your canoeing and kayaking adventures. Shawn Habecker Asst.
